16/323 Matters Raised by Councillors

- Christmas Tree provision – A tree was now on order for Emley village in line with current arrangements with the rest of the parish
- Sponsored hanging baskets – Cllr Kemp informed councillors of an initiative whereby individuals/companies could sponsor hanging baskets. This would not affect the arrangements the council have in place. Cllr Kemp would act to liaise with contacts.
- Report from the HRI Meeting – Cllr Depledge reported back from the joint stakeholder event on the proposed changes, which was a ‘deliberation’ meeting on the outcomes of the now closed consultation. A decision was to be made on the proposed changes on 20 October. As well as the Emergency care provision being proposed to be move away from Huddersfield, Cllr Depledge highlighted that the recommendations included; urgent care, planned (routine) care, paediatric care and maternity care. There was to be a focus on home care due to the belief that patients recover better in their home environment and also to avoid bed blocking. Cllr Depledge advised councillors to look at the ‘rightcarerighttimerightplace’ website for more detail on the proposals.
- Report from Kirklees Councillors meeting – Cllrs Depledge and Jewitt had attended the meeting with Cllrs Turner and Sheard where asset transfers, the new national legislation on precepts and the Kirklees budget had been discussed.
- Waste /rubble disposal – This had been raised with Kirklees councillors at the above meeting along with the issue of fly tipping. It was suggested that signage could be effective as a deterrent, however it was stated that this wasn’t the case in Emley. Cllr Jewitt stated he would be bringing the issue up again at the next meeting.
- Denby Dale Nursery – Cllr Denby highlighted the unsecure door and missing hoardings around the site which would allow access which could be dangerous. It was stated that any individual could contact HSE with concerns. RESOLVED that the Clerk with assistance from Cllr Kemp to Kirklees council with the council’s concerns.
- Noticeboard at Denby Dale – RESOLVED that a noticeboard be provided for Denby Dale at a cost of £198 plus £80 installation using the General Power of Competence provided by the Localism Act 2011.
